

Certificate Requirements

Successful completion of the certificate requires four graduate courses (16 units). Students must complete the Food Studies core course, URBN PL 216 (4 units), and three additional courses (4 units each) selected from at least two of the three subject areas below.

Core Course (required)

URBN PL 216: Food Studies Graduate Certificate Colloquium

Food Policy and Food Systems

CHS 448: Nutrition Policies and Programs
LAW 440: Introduction to Food Law and Policy
LAW 634: Food Law and Policy Seminar
LAW 912: City Food Policy
URBN PL 265C: Food Systems

Nutritional Science

CHS 231: Maternal and Child Nutrition
CHS 443: Assessment of Family Nutrition
EPI 254: Nutritional Epidemiology

Social and Cultural Aspects of Food

ANTHRO M266/CHS M260: Health and Culture
CHS 224: Social Determinants of Nutrition and Health
ENGL 260: Studies in Literature and its Relationship to Arts and Sciences
OB 229B: Anthropological Perspectives on Global Health
