AT UCLA SCHOOL OF LAW,

we develop passionate lawyers and leaders ready to take on the world.

As one of the top law schools in the nation, UCLA Law is committed to providing an unparalleled educational experience in a warm and inclusive environment. UCLA Law students are problem solvers. They engage on pressing issues such as climate change, immigration, business policy, criminal justice, international human rights and much more. They are also thinkers, probing ideas and challenging themselves and each other.

“At every step of this journey, I have been buoyed by the support and encouragement of my UCLA professors and classmates.”

Law Clerk for U.S. Supreme Court Justice Sonia Sotomayor, 2021-22

“My professors at UCLA Law were generous and enthusiastic in sharing their knowledge, and my colleagues were friendly and talented. I came out of UCLA Law excited to practice, and I’ve been using the knowledge I gained there ever since.”

SMITHA DANIELYAN '10
Senior Counsel

Mountain View, CA

“UCLA Law has an entrepreneurial spirit, designing innovative programs and offering students the flexibility to chart their own course. My professors were among the top in their field but remained approachable. Many of my classmates had worked before law school, as I had, and they created a friendly and low-stress environment that encouraged everyone to do their best.”

DEFINE YOUR EXPERIENCE

At UCLA Law, you can launch your legal career while immersed in a rich intellectual community that will engage, energize and inspire you.

Gain practical training in our pioneering experiential education program. Explore the foundations of legal theory with world-renowned professors who are among the most influential scholars in their fields. Make lifelong friends. Build connections with alumni and professors that will last a lifetime. Above all, challenge yourself and discover the contributions only you can make to the legal profession.

Go broad. Go deep. Dive into an area of law by pursuing one of our specializations, or take courses in a variety of areas. Extern with judges, government agencies, international organizations, entertainment companies and other entities. Study abroad, work in Washington, D.C., or the Hague for a semester, or take courses in other UCLA departments. Whatever your passions, you can pursue them at UCLA Law.

“At UCLA Law, I was encouraged to enroll in the courses that interested me—including Authority and Human Rights, Prison Law and Policy, and Law and Popular Culture—so that I gained the broadest possible perspective on the law and what I could do with my degree.”

Los Angeles is often called a microcosm of the world—one of the most diverse, beautiful and vibrant cities on the planet.

Los Angeles offers a rich artistic, social and cultural environment that has something for everyone. Sample fare from food trucks, check out film festivals or outdoor concerts and attend UCLA Bruins football games at the Rose Bowl. Hike the canyons, relax at the beach or visit cultural institutions like the Getty Center or Walt Disney Concert Hall—all just minutes from campus.

L.A. is a place where creativity and new ideas flourish, where a robust economy connects to every continent and where the most important legal issues of our time emerge and take form.

MAKING CONNECTIONS

UCLA Law is not too big and not too small. We are just right, offering the collegiality of a close-knit student and alumni community in the midst of a world-class public university.

When you enroll at UCLA Law, you become part of an extended family that will support and encourage you every step of the way—from orientation to graduation and beyond.

Our approximately 70 student organizations and journals allow you to make a difference, build professional connections and form lasting bonds with your peers. Our alumni network, more than 20,000 strong, provides mentorship, career guidance and access to some of the most distinguished and talented legal minds in the nation.

Our alumni are leaders in law firms, movie studios, technology companies, nonprofit organizations and more. They include a U.S. senator, two members of the House of Representatives, and approximately 200 sitting state and federal judges.

“The wonderful thing about UCLA Law was that even though I went through law school not knowing exactly what kind of law I wanted to do, coming out of it I felt I would be prepared to do anything.”

JUDGE SALVADOR MENDOZA JR. '97
U.S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit
Richland, WA

“Optimism, service, innovation, diversity, and teamwork are encoded into the DNA of UCLA Law. When I chose UCLA, I did so on the promise that when I graduated, these ideals would become part of my DNA as a lawyer. UCLA more than delivered on that promise.”

BUILDING CAREERS

“During my first year at UCLA Law, I knew I wanted to start my legal career in Atlanta. I told my career counselor and she made sure I knew when Georgia firms were hosting home for the holiday events, and attending these events allowed me to network with Atlanta attorneys in a way I couldn’t have in L.A. Additionally, over the summer, any time a firm had an interview opening for an Atlanta office, my counselor would call me or text me to make sure I knew of the opportunity and that I had adequate time to prepare.”

We work closely with you to navigate your journey from the UCLA Law classroom to a successful career, and we provide many opportunities to build practical skills along the way.

Our Office of Career Services and Office of Public Interest Programs propel our students toward exceptional opportunities. Close to 400 employers—from government agencies and global law firms to local and national organizations serving the public interest—connect with students each year for interviews, receptions and other networking opportunities. Experienced staff help students define career goals and connect with mentors and prospective employers; sponsor expert-led seminars and workshops on succeeding in various practice areas and regions; and coordinate networking and employment events with employers from New York, Washington, D.C., the San Francisco Bay Area and other major legal markets, as well as many events at the law school.

CURRICULUM OVERVIEW

At UCLA Law, we provide a dynamic education that prepares students to become leaders in all areas of the law.

From the outset, J.D. students explore the foundations of legal reasoning with esteemed professors who, in many cases, literally wrote the book on the subject. Students begin their UCLA Law career with our pioneering orientation programs that ease the transition to law school over the course of almost two weeks. Our distinctive yearlong Legal Research and Writing course provides students with the opportunity to explore the relationship between legal analysis and lawyering tasks, and it is taught alongside courses that historically have laid the foundation for law of all kinds: Civil Procedure, Constitutional Law, Contracts and Torts, along with two elective courses chosen from a broad selection of topics.

During the second and third years, J.D. students can structure their curriculum to suit their interests by selecting from among more than 200 advanced courses. Approximately 93% of all upper-level classes enroll fewer than 50 students, and 76% of all upper-level classes enroll fewer than 25 students. Students also can pursue their interests by:

- Developing practical skills through our groundbreaking experiential education program
- Exploring non-traditional legal topics through small seminars, sometimes taught in professors' homes
- Broadening their expertise with interdisciplinary courses taught in other campus departments
- Studying abroad at one of our 16 partner law schools
- Going to Washington, D.C., through the UCDC program or to the Hague through The Promise Institute Europe for eye-opening externships
