Daniela was born in Mexico City, Mexico and raised in Huntington Park, California. She graduated from Yale College in 2018 with a double-major in Sociology and Ethnicity, Race & Migration. After graduation, she worked as a Multidisciplinary Research Analyst at a legal expert witness provider before joining an immigration firm as a Legal Assistant in its business immigration practice group. At UCLA School of Law, she is Co-Chair for the Latinx Law Students Association, a Chief Executive Editor for the Chicanx/Latinx Law Review, and a Vice-Chair for the Mexican American Bar Association. A former UCLA Law Fellow, she currently mentors participants of the program. This summer, she joined Greenberg Traurig as a Summer Associate in its Century City office. Next summer she will join Goodwin Procter's Santa Monica office and return to Greenberg Traurig's Century City office.
