

Danielle St. Clair

City of Pasadena
100 N. Garfield Ave, Room N210
Pasadena, CA 91109
626-744-4120
dstclair@cityofpasadena.net

Danielle St. Clair ('11) is a Deputy City Attorney at the City of Pasadena, where she focuses primarily on litigation as well as advising the Pasadena Police Department on personnel matter, department policies and compliance with state law. Prior to joining the City of Pasadena, Danielle worked in small firm settings representing public entities in the County of Ventura as well as sureties throughout Southern California. During law school, Danielle clerked with the Los Angeles County Counsel, Dependency Appeals Division. While at UCLA Law, Danielle participated in the Women's Law Journal and various Moot Court competitions. She also served on the Moot Court Honors Board and as a Writing Advisor for 1L Legal Research and Writing students.