

Star Bobatoon

Keynote Speaker, Corporate Trainer,
Public Speaking Coach,
Motivational Speaker,
Star Consulting LLC,
UCLA School of Law
Washington DC-Baltimore Area
star@starbobatoon.com

Star is a dynamic corporate trainer, award-winning speaker and story & presentation coach. Star's background as an employment attorney gives her valuable insight into HR, corporate management and leadership issues. With over a decade of performance on stage, television and the big screen, Star delivers that insight in a high-energy and engaging style that enhances her effectiveness as a speaker, trainer and executive coach.

As a presentation and public speaking coach equips professionals with solid skills and confidence to share their stories on stages small and large. Star understands the power of strategic story-telling in training businesses, organizations and individuals how to better communicate their products, services and individuality. She also empowers teams and individuals to uncover the limiting belief stories that keep them from reaching their full potential.

Star leverages her diverse background to leave her audiences and clients informed, inspired and equipped with the practical skills necessary to achieve higher levels of personal and professional excellence. Her passion for empowering and inspiring people to be their best selves spills over into everything she does.