

2018-2019 FOGARTY HEALTH FELLOWSHIPS

APPLICATIONS ARE OPEN!

FUNDS FOR RESEARCH ABROAD

A mentored fellowship studying health abroad.

Open to:

- ◆ Junior faculty
- ◆ Senior professional students
- ◆ Post-doctoral fellows
- ◆ Advanced doctoral students

11 consecutive months of stipend support, health insurance, modest research training costs, travel costs to and from the international site, tuition for 2-3 online courses, and a weeklong orientation at the NIH.

The University of California Global Health Institute (UCGHI) GloCal Health Fellowship is a career development fellowship sponsored by the NIH Fogarty International Center, as well as a consortium at the UCGHI. This consortium is comprised of UCSF, UCSD, UCLA, UC Davis & 27 affiliated international sites across 16 countries.

The program provides trainees with outstanding, interdisciplinary education and training in innovative global health research designed to improve health for populations around the world. Trainees will be matched with global health faculty from one of the four UCs and an international site.

The fellowship is designed for: doctoral students (PhD, DrPH, etc.), professional students (MD, DDS, DVM, PharmD, etc.), post-doctoral fellows, foreign post-doctoral fellows from participating international sites, and junior faculty with a current NIH Career Development Award (K series or similar).
